Colonial Williamsburg

Senior Distributed Systems Specialist-IT

Williamsburg, Virginia

Primary Duties

Works as a member of the Information Technology department to implement and support the business systems for the Foundation by providing problem resolution, enhancement and implementation services to meet guest needs and business opportunities, works as a .NET developer through all phases of software development, including requirements gathering, modeling, design, development, testing, deployment, documentation, and support.
Assists and acts as a technical consultant to the business units to translate business requirements into technical requirements, to optimize and automate business process with state-of-the-art technology, and to deploy technology systems to facilitate the departmental operations.

Minimum Qualifications

A Bachelors Degree in Computer Science/ MIS or equivalent experience. Experience developing .NET applications.  Experience with developing T-SQL stored procedures in Microsoft SQL Server Experience with SQL Server Integration and Reporting Services, Object oriented design, including working knowledge of .NET foundation classes and design patterns desired. Experience with .NET managed languages ASP.NET, WPF, XML, Visual Studio, ADO.NET desired. Experience with Microsoft IIS, Microsoft Exchange, Microsoft Share-point, and Microsoft Office Technologies is a plus.

See full requirements and apply online at:
www.History.org/jobs

OR

Apply in person at Colonial Williamsburg's Employment Office
427 Franklin Street
Williamsburg, Virginia
(757) 220-7713

Colonial Williamsburg supports a drug- and alcohol-free workplace.
AA/EOE